CURRENT FOCUS

Integrity

4M

4M have been studying integrity using the ‘black sheep’ as an analogy.

At school we all want to feel a part of the group. Much like a herd of white sheep, which follow each other around the paddock, we follow each other around saying and doing what is acceptable to our friends and others in the schoolyard. The black sheep shows integrity by...

Being different and standing out from the crowd. The black sheep will be who they really are. Chloé W.

Standing up to bullies even if they’re afraid to and by being themselves. Beth C.

Standing up for people without expecting a reward. They accept that people are different and don’t change themselves just because of what others think. They always try to do the right thing if someone is being bullied even though they might be scared. Indigo T

Standing up to bullies even though they can be stronger. Jackson H.

Not being like everybody else and standing up to others even though they may be scared. Banjo K.

Standing out from all the others. Lachie M.

Standing up and taking a new side and being honest and not following others. The black sheep is different in a good way. Max R.

Standing up to people they are scared of. Alana

Standing up for yourself and others. Also, following your feelings. Wileny N.

Being themselves! Vivien H

Being honest, trustworthy and standing out from everyone else. Alyssa R.

Standing out from the crowd and not copying others. Gabe V.

The white sheep are all the same, the black sheep stand out from the crowd and stand up to bullies. The black sheep do not bully, they’re just the odd ones out sadly. Matilda G.

Standing up to others even if they aren’t your best friends. Chema W.

Standing up to bullies even if they are stronger and meaner. Bernard H.

Standing up for people if they are being bullied even if they are scared. Henry M.

Standing up to bullies even though it might be frightening. Zach K.

Standing up to bullies. Olly R

Standing up for their friend even if they’re afraid, not talking about people behind their backs, being yourself and doing the right thing even if people make fun of you. Mika O.

PRINCIPAL’S REPORT

Newsletter – Week 8, Term 3

• Book Fair – this weekend
• Sister School Visit
• 5/6 visit DSC stage production
• School Council

As we move towards the end of the term, the energy and feel around the school is so positive. We have achieved so much this term, with more in the coming weeks, starting this weekend with our 6th Annual Book Fair. This event is our major fundraiser for the year, with the money raised being used to support the school’s Literacy program. Volunteers for set-up on Friday afternoon, assistance on the Saturday and Sunday and pack up on Sunday afternoon are more than welcome. If you are unable to assist, if would be great if you could come along and support this fundraiser by picking up a few books!

Tuesday next week, 6th September, we will be hosting members of the About Taste team from Italy, which will include delegates from our sister school, as well as educational leaders from Italy. A year four class will be cooking lunch for our guests, before we host a mini-concert in the Gym at 2:30. Parents are more than welcome to come to the concert in the afternoon to hear the Junior and Senior Choir as well as the Year One classes perform for this unique event.

On Tuesday afternoon, our 5/6 students visited Daylesford Secondary College to see a performance of ‘Dazzle’, this year’s Performing Arts event. It is a wonderful part of the transition for our students, most of whom will attend DSC. There are also plans for a “Maths Day” early in Term 4 at DSC with all the students from the local primary schools involved. We will keep you posted on that event.

Lastly, I would like to emphasise my callout for any nominations onto School Council. We have a parent vacancy at present and I welcome anyone interested to discuss the commitment with me or complete a self-nomination form available at the office. There are two meetings remaining in Term 4 for this year (occurring on the fourth Tuesday of October and November). It would be great to have another member of the parent body join the dynamic school council.

Do the right thing. It will gratify some people and astonish the rest.

About T@ste...

Four years ago, 4 Australian Primary Schools with Italian programs were chosen to be part of an International project called “About T@ste”. These schools were matched with 4 schools in Northern Italy to explore the themes around food and healthy eating, in both languages of Italian and English.

Our School, DAYLESFORD PRIMARY SCHOOL, was one of the 4 Australian schools selected. In May last year all 8 language teachers came together to present their work at the WORLD EXPO in Milan, Italy.

Now, the Italian team is visiting Australia and will be in Daylesford On Tuesday 6th September. To welcome them, our Kitchen Garden expert, Sandra, and Grade 4K students will be cooking lunch for our international visitors.

At 2.30 there will be a PERFORMANCE IN THE GYM. Performing are: Junior and Senior choirs; Grade 1 students and Grade PrepW. ALL WELCOME. Hope to see you there.

Signora Trudi
Thank you again to all the parents who have returned their Student/Family updates, these are important documents and need to be returned to the office ASAP.

Unexplained Absence letters were distributed with last weeks' newsletter. These will indicate days where unexplained absences have been recorded. If you receive one of these notes please indicate the reason for your child's absence and return as soon as possible.

Late Arrival and Early Departure
Students being dropped off late to school must be signed in at the office under parent supervision. We ask that parents accompany their child to class to ensure constant supervision.

In the case of early departure from school a reminder that a blue early departure form must be collected and completed at the office. This must then be taken and given to your child’s teacher before they can release the child from their care. No student will be released early without receipt of the blue slip.
